Types of superheros

1 Superhuman Go to List of Heroes

Heroes in this list have ice breath, laser-eyes, flying, super strength and endurance. Example Thor, Scarlet Witch and Captain Marvel.

2 Martial Artist Go to List of Heroes

Masters of one or more martial art. Superheroes in this category have no or almost no superpowers. They are extremely athletic and highly trained. Examples of martial artists are Black Widow, Hawkeye & Maria Hill.

3 Brick/Tank Go to List of Heroes

These are superheroes with superhuman strength and endurance. They are usually incredibly big and muscular. Examples include Hulk.

4 Blaster Go to List of Heroes

Heroes whose primary power is a distant attack, like an energy ray, belong to this category.

For example, Peter Quill, Rocket Raccoon, Yondu, Vision, War Machine.

This category can be further divided:

a Elementalist: A hero who controls certain elements or forces of nature, such as Thor and Scarlet Witch

b Mage: A hero who uses magic or the supernatural, such as Dr. Strange c Marksman: A hero who uses projectile and/or throwing weapons like firearms, bows and arrows and throwing knives.

Examples include Hawkeye.

5 Gadgeteer Go to List of Heroes

This category describes heroes who use special gadgets to give them superpowers. This category can be further divided:

a Armored Hero: A gadgeteer whose powers come from a special armor or costume, such as Iron Man and Black Panther.

b Metal Hero: A variant of the armored hero, they are usually a type of cyborg or android. Example Vision.

6 Speedster Go to List of Heroes

This type of hero has superhuman speed and reflexes. Examples include Quicksilver.

7 Mentalist Go to List of Heroes

Heroes who possess psychic or telekinetic powers are known as mentalists. Examples include Mantis, Scarlet Witch and Vision.

8 Shapeshifter Go to List of Heroes

Heroes who can take many forms and shapes belong here. This means their body can stretch and shrink, like Groot, or it can take an entirely different form (Mystique).

9 Size Changer Go to List of Heroes

A subcategory in the shapeshifter category. These heroes can change their body size to become extremely big or extremely small. Examples include Antman and Wasp.

10 Rider Go to List of Heroes

This category describes heroes who use special transportation that gives them their power, such as Silver Surfer.
