About Me

My Name is Stephen George Samuel

I am a BVoc User interface and interaction engineering student. I am a young and energetic student looking for opportunities to obtain a deeper knowledge and develop experience. I have learnt design tools such as Figma, Canva and Photoshop.

Color scheme

- Red symbolizes Blood. It shows the blood, tear and hard work of people put into the work they do.
- Orange signifies determination and success because without determination success is not possible.
- Blue denotes honesty and originality. If we scam people we ourselves will finally find ourselves a victim of our own actions.
- Purple represents wisdom and creativity. Both these qualities mingled together leads to prosperity.

Workshop outcomes or project outcomes

WHAT?

WHY?

HOW?

What do I do?

I went to different shops and asked the owner/ manager whether I could ask them about their personal lives, how they started the shop and other details.

Why do I do it?

I do this activity to understand the difficulties people face in their lives and how they deal with it. This helps you understand society and their way of life.

How I achieve it?

I go to many nearby shops on my cycle and collect data which I later edit to write a document that talks about the profiles of different people.

Concept note 17.10.22

I used info I collected previously on 12th October. I made profiles of different people. I thought that making a profile of different people would be easy and fun so I decided to take it up. I went to Galleria mall on 17.10.22 and collected info for my project.

I faced several issues while doing these interviews because of:

- Communication barrier. Many people only understood and spoke Kannada.
- Owners were out of state either on trips or they lived in other states.
- Some people were just not interested in doing interviews because they didn't see what was there in it for them.
- Some of them were out for lunch and i was told to come back later.

Issues i faced

Concept note 17.10.22

These were the responses that I got:

1. Many shops like Samsung, Adidas, Allen Solly, Casio, Samsonite, Body shop told me that their owners/ managers don't live in Bangalore and that they couldn't answer the questions.

2. At Crocs, the manager was there but he was not interested in doing an interview. He told an outright no and didn't seem interested. I felt annoyed at his behavior.

3. When I went to Hush puppies the manager was having lunch and they told me to come back later.

Didn't know answers to the questions

- Samsung
- Adidas
- Allen Solly
- Casio
- Samsonite
- Body shop

Knew the answers but was not interested.

- Crocs

Was out for lunch.

- Hush puppies

Concept note 18.10.22

I went to Galleria mall yesterday and didn't get any meaningful information. So I decided to go to small shops on the roadside.

I got a suggestion from a friend for 2 shops. I went searching but still didn't find them.

Went to multiple shops nearby like Vivo, Asha sweet center, etc. They all told me to try somewhere else. Bata seems eager to give the information but said that he needed to get company approval and that would take time.

Peps mattress shop and Go Colors shop. They said they could do it and gave me their phone number. They told me to send it to him and he would do it in his free time. I asked a person who works in my pg. called Kiran. He told me he would try to answer them. When I went back to my pg. I saw someone going to the terrace. So, I followed him out of curiosity. He told me he has been living in a room on the terrace for the past 5 months. I asked him whether he could help me with my project. He said he would do it when free.

Concept note 19.10.22

Today i was mainly arranging the information that i got into a document.

Yesterday many people had told me that they were busy when i asked whether i could interview them and had asked to take their number and send the qns to their WhatsApp later.

When i sent it to my Interaction design teacher at Srishti he suggested rather than sending a picture i could make a Google form. I tried it out. It was a bit too simple. I made the form and sent it to a bunch of people on my networks.

I got multiple replies and started adding them to my project file.

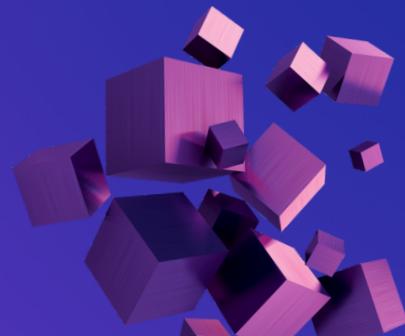

Concept note 20.10.22

Worked on editing all the responses i got from different people into a canva file.
Started work on the cover of the book.

Different type of people interviewed

I am planning on making a website wireframe to help different people follow their passion rather than follow the traditional way of taking over their parents line of profession. This is a pie chart showing the different types of people I interviewed. It helps me decide how the website should be designed and helps me make a plan for the wireframe.
